UNIVERSITY MODEL SCHOOL

What is a University Model School?

University Model Schooling is a form of education that takes the college schedule and brings it into a K-12 format. Students attend classes at the school building 2-3 days per week, and spend time studying and learning from home on the "home days." This model mimics the college format and helps prepare college-worthy students.

We believe this model best helps equip parents to be the primary influencer in a student's life, and gives them opportunities to be involved in their student's education. That's why we have partnered with the National Association Model Schools to become a certified University Model School.

What does this look like for my student?

Students will receive formal instruction in all of the basic, core subject areas when attending GCA. When at home, study days will involve reading, writing, math, and other projects which are assigned in class and will be turned in for grading on the formal school days. You will not be expected to teach any new material. The classroom teacher will do the teaching, and you will serve as a co-teacher, guide, or coach, depending on your student's age.

Benefits of University Model School

- Direct parent involvement in education
- University style structure naturally prepares students for college
- Time and cost effective
- Encourages student work ethic
- Encourages family support
- Supports biblical values and character
- More flexible than five-day private or public schooling

PARENTAL AGREEMENT

Grace Covenant Academy seeks to cultivate a partnership with families rooted in our biblical responsibilities. Your eagerness to embrace the following enables us to covenant together to provide a distinctively Christian education.

I believe that God has given me the primary responsibility for training my children and providing a suitable education.

I desire to provide my children with a distinctively Christian education. I will seek to teach biblical principles and truths to my children, and make relevant applications of God's Word to the circumstances of our family life

My goal for the instruction of my children is to point them to knowing God and cultivating academic excellence to prepare them so as to make Him known in whatever ways and places He has designed for them. I understand that this is built on the foundation of biblical truth and godly character. I will seek to develop my children's character according to the standards of God's Word.

I will demonstrate my faith to my children through personal devotion to the Lord Jesus Christ and through faithful involvement in a Bible-believing, gospel-centered local church as described in the membership agreement.

I will carry out my responsibility to effectively secure in my children the proper attitude towards authority and the willingness to adhere to the policies, standards and practices of Grace Covenant Academy.

I will make a whole hearted effort to attend all scheduled parent meetings and conferences

I will seek to meet the school's recommended guidelines for my involvement and participation in school.

I will endeavor to develop and maintain a godly atmosphere in my home; exercise control over inappropriate influences on my children; and model a Christ-like life to best of my ability

I will maintain integrity in all of my dealings with the school, which includes covenanting in faith for the full payment of annual tuition for my children's education.

I have read the Parent/Student Handbook of Grace Covenant Academy and agree to abide by the policies and practices it contains.

I understand that acceptance into Grace Covenant Academy is decided annually, and that continued enrollment is contingent upon satisfying the admissions standards.

Core Value

Love of God

The reason Grace Covenant Academy exists in the first place is the love of God. God's love compels us to love the people he puts in our path. Each staff member at GCA is a committed Christian who cares for students as if they were their own.

Under the parents' delegated authority, our teachers seek to guide students to think and live according to the Scripture. We strive to model a love for God and the church, both local and universal, as well as a love for learning God's truth.

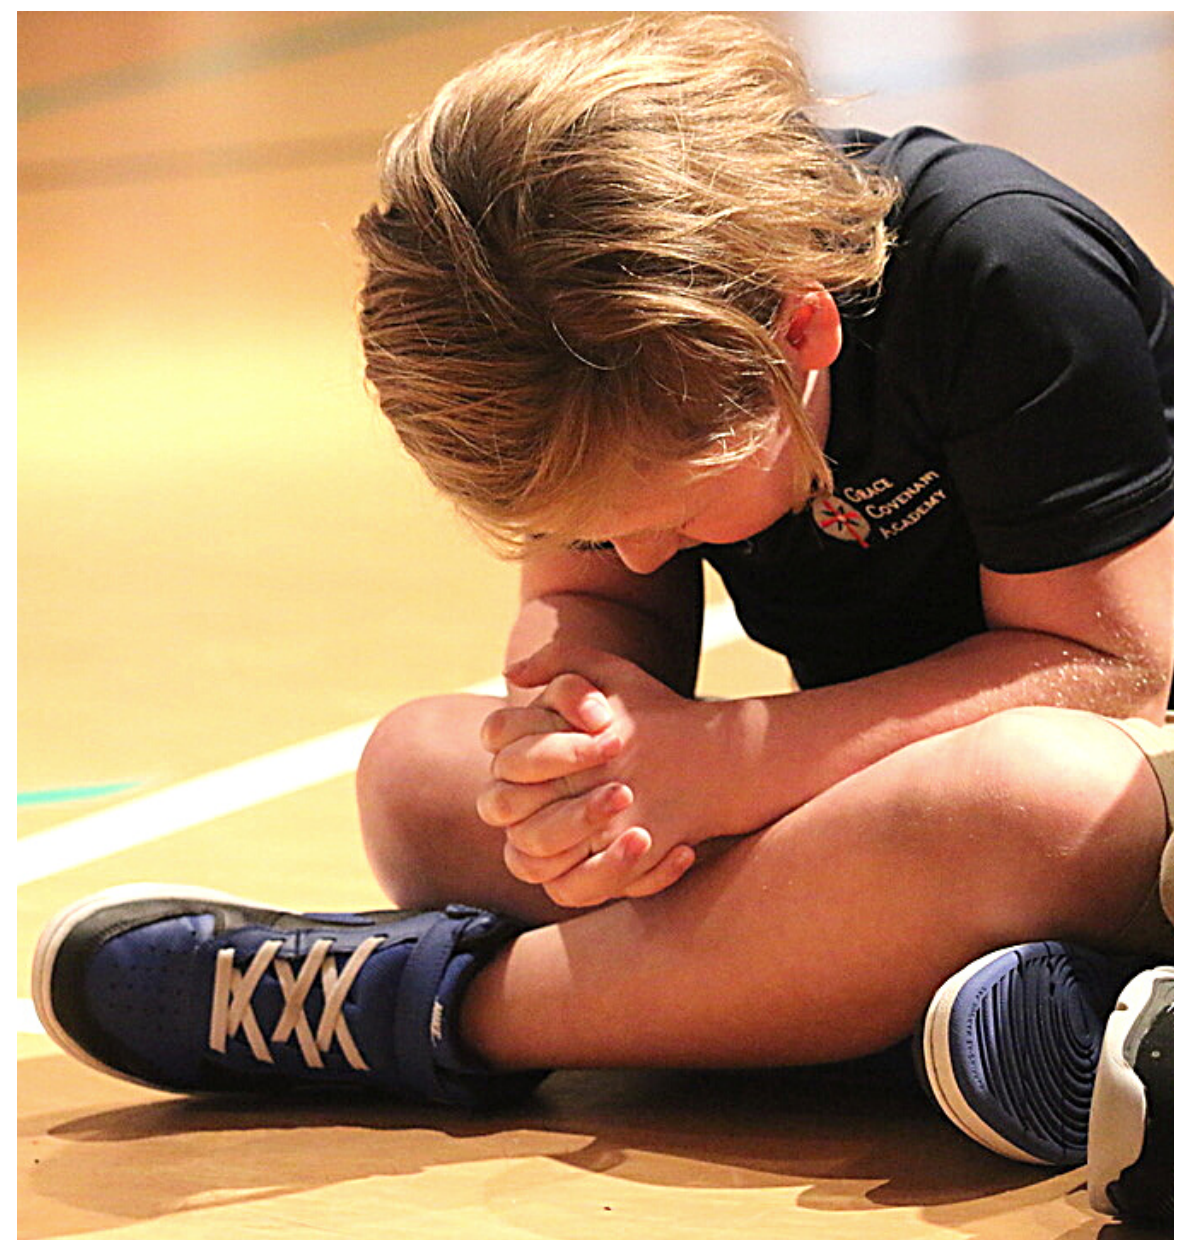

Core Value

Gospel-Centered

All of us are both image bearers of God and sinners in need of a Savior. The fact that Jesus came to reconcile us to God informs all that we do at Grace Covenant Academy. We teach the gospel through our Bible courses, through weekly chapel time, and through personal testimony.

Whether a student needs encouragement or consequences applied in love, we want what is best for the student and the family. We choose what points them to the incredible love of Jesus

Core Value

Biblical Worldview

Grace Covenant Academy holds to doctrines that are biblically faithful and historically orthodox. We believe the Bible to be the true, sole authority on all matters pertaining to life and faith.

We believe education should be biblically based, informed by the gospel, and bathed in grace. We aim to create an environment where biblical standards for student appearance, conduct, character, and academic achievement are maintained and encouraged.

Core Value

Love of Learning

God has given each of our students unique gifts, needs, and learning style. We celebrate those differences. Recognizing that each student is an individual, teachers at GCA use a variety of methods and resources to make learning fun. We know that students engage when they are active participants and our goal is to tap into each student's innate love of learning.

GCA ADVENTURE PROGRAM

The wilderness, the place where God speaks

The Adventure program is designed to teach students multiple outdoor disciplines and leadership skills that can be carried throughout life. Along with classroom lectures, students spend ample time outdoors putting their skills to practice- both locally and out of state.

Who is this program for?

The adventure program is for 7-12 graders only. We seek to admit middle and high-schoolers who exhibit these leadership qualities:

- Participation and interest to be there and to learn
- Servant Heart: willingness to assist others during team-building
- Humble Heart: responsiveness to correction during training

The GCA Adventure team meets weekly and counts as an elective. Every year the middle and high school adventure teams take 2-4 trips in Texas, Oklahoma and surrounding states.

For more information about the adventure program, contact Haley Edwards at haley.edwards@gcafrisco.org.

Additionally, our coaches are committed to cultivating an environment where excellence and godliness are encouraged.
